MRS. JAMES W. WICKENDEN

Dedication

To NANCY MELLOR WICKENDEN . . .

Revered by all who know her . . . a gracious spirit within the life of TABOR . . . for the warmth of her encouragement and her steadfast confidence in the success of each of us, for her sharing in our hopes and anxieties, for her ready smile and quiet word of reassurance, and for the depth of her devotion to the school . . .

We, the Seniors, dedicate the Fore 'n' Aft of 1954.

SENIORS

Second row: C. Monahan; A. Baker; L. Stone; M. Fuller; D. Dansard; W. Melbye; S. Heath; H. Pelton; W. Alcorn; J. Pozerycki; J. Worthington; J. Knauth, R. Roche; P. Zavorskas; A. Blau; B. Lasbury; J. Xifaras; P. Sibley; G. Robertshaw; R. Power; R. Flanagan.

Fourth row: W. Kearsley; T. Karam; P. Brownell; G. Hawley; C. Rhoten; B. Hannon; G. Porter; L. Soloff; T. Mangan; J. Urdzela; P. Ellis; R. Duby; A. Dean; S. Park; W. Reagan; R. Regazzini; R. Padilla; R. Ellis; C. Morbey; A. Martin; D. Lee; R. Sellars; A. Grant.

This year's graduating class is stronger, both academically and athletically, than any of recent years. It is not always that a class is strong in both of these fields, and so, this should prove to set a precedent for subsequent classes to go by.

However, although we may now think that a goal has been achieved, the problems and the responsibilities which we shall face will unfold the realization that we have much to learn concerning the intricacies of this vast world of ours. The more cognizant we become of the democratic ways of life, the easier it will be for us to face our political, economical, social, and moral duties. In this way we shall be contributing to the welfare of all peoples, regardless of race, color, or creed.

Senior Class Officers

The obligation of the senior officers is to lead their class throughout the year, and they have fulfilled this obligation in a manner which emplifies the senior class as a whole.

Serving to represent the feelings and wishes of the senior class, Phil Simmons, president, with his natural ability for leadership, epitomized that which is demanded of the office of presidency. Likewise Bab Ragazzini, Ira Chace, and Paul Sibley, all with unfailing willingness, set themselves to perform their respective tasks.

UNDER CLASSMEN

Second row: N. Dennehy; W. Jeffrey; W. Williams; P. Masaschi; E. Earle; A. Pierce; S. Boorstein; W. Thompson; D. MacIntyre; G. DeMello; M. Falkson; R. Darst; C. Chapman; J. Young; P. Ripley; M. Walter; G. Reitzas.

Third row: J. Nolan; T. Rabbitt; J. Haynes; R. Berman; W. Knott; R. Crevier; C. Broberg; M. Wheeler; R. Ades; S. Singer; B. Adaire; R. Henderson; R. Oliveira; J. McGrath; M. Feresten; A. Conro; L. Berube; J. Rolfe.

Fourth row: G. Heinz; B. Schneierson; W. Adamson; S. Wong; J. Marglin; R. Campbell; A. Marvin; T. Albertson; R. Jones; C. Getz; W. Peterson; F. Miley; R. Padilla; C. Maginnis.

Emerging from the ranks of the lower classes, this year's junior class has proven its ability to handle most any situation confronting it.

Under the guidance of Misters' Markham, Richard Wickenden, and Howard, the junior class has branched out into such organizations as "The Log", and the "Fore 'n' Aft", and promises to supply the leadership needed by them during the next year. This quality of leadership is already exemplified by Ralph Henderson, who has assumed the job of editor-in-chief of "The Log" for his senior year.

Without a doubt, the class of '55 will prove itself strong in every aspect of the school life.

Second row: M. Peck; L. Ballantyne; R. Hines; M. Warshauer; W. Mackenzine; L. Phelps; B. Kosman; G. Barrington; J. Wickenden; J. Gada; R. Vaughan; W. Merrill; R. Connelly; W. Ramsbottom; J. Warman; E. Kiernan; B. Howe.

Third row: S. Leech; R. Anderson; E. Flagg; B. Woodward; C. Lalli; J. Swope; N. Shepard; J. Bowdle; J. Arne; F. Mann; R. Murphy; A. Ullman; G. Hayes; J. Bartlett; J. Hudgins; C. Briggs.

A well-rounded student body in any school cannot exist without the help of a strong sophomore class. Certainly this year's class has proved its strength with many of the boys participating in varsity athletics, "The Log", the Glee Club, Dramatics, and various other extracurricular activities.

As in all the other classes, the sophomores have their share of heroes and leaders who tend to make the class even better integrated.

With many of the boys well off scholastically, and others getting a finer grip on the school life, the sophomores are beginning to mold themselves into the foundation of what looks like a powerful senior class in 1956.

Freshman Class

Second row: W. Darling; J. Leeds; R. Pierce; H. Blake; S. Gray; A. Blake; L. Heap; J. Vallejo; P. Hamilton; P. Lipsitt.

Third row: E. Clark; G. Crawford; P. Patzer; J. Kleven; L. Cousins; W. Cunniff; J. Burke; J. Peckham.

The best foundation for a strong senior class is a good freshman class. This year the school was fortunate to possess such a class.

It is the freshman who are often left with many tedious jobs which require doing for the welfare of the school. Rarely has a class done them so rapidly and yet so effectively as the freshman of this year. They are also found representing the school in various athletics and extracurricular activities.

With a continuance of this trend, the freshman may look forward to a well-balanced class in the years to come.

Undefeated Varsity Football

Second row: Mr. H. Potter; G. De Mello; P. Brownell; T. Albertson; R. Regazzini; S. Swartz; J. Urdzela; R. Mac Leod; W. Hawes; A. Cotter; I. Chace; Mr. C. Markham.

Third row: C. Monahan; R. Camp; J. Gada; R. Darst; L. Stone; W. P. Clark; S. Epstein; J. O'Connor; W. Lovell; A. Norton; T. McGreevy; D. Potter.

The Varsity Football team of '53 has added another record making season to the annals of Tabor football history, by successfully completing its third undefeated season in the last four years. Although it was confronted by one of the roughest schedules possible, the team went through the season without once meeting defeat. In seven games Tabor retained a record of two undefeated teams in a row, by finishing the season with six wins and one tie.

Mr. Markham started the season off right with a week of early practice before the academic year got under way. The fall turnout was good, and, in a short time, the team was chosen, and the arduous task of preparing for the opener with Moses Brown was begun. At first the problem of who to use in the fullback spot was Mr. Markham's main worry, but it was easily solved by the arrival of Joe Urdzela, a versatile 200 pounder who could run, pass, and kick. With a large, experienced line and a fast backfield, the club looked ready for a tough schedule.

The opener with Moses Brown saw the Middies emerge with a 20-13 victory which, more or less, knitted the team together and whetted their appetites for the next game with Choate. The long and tiresome trip to Wallingford, Conn. could be held responsible for the 0-0 tie with Choate. Despite the inspired play of Dick Power and Co-Captains Wayne Reagan and Bob Roche, who were a constant scoring threat, Tabor was unable to penetrate Choate's end zone, and the game ended in a scoreless tie.

The next week found the Tabor team pitted against a strong Williams Freshmen club in a game which could be considered the best contest of the season. In the opening minutes of the game, Dick Power broke away on an end run behind precision blocking to score the only touchdown of the game. Although both teams repeatedly threatened to score, the Tabor defense emerged the stronger, and the game ended with Tabor victorious 6-0.

The three games that followed produced easy wins over M. I. T., Governor Dummer, and Harvard Freshmen. Then arose the game which would climax the undefeated season; the final game with the strong Thayer club. Despite the fact that injured Dave Pozerycki and Co-Captain Bob Roche made only token appearances in the beginning of the game, the Middies sufficiently beat the Thayer team 13-6, with strong line play on the part of Gil Robertshaw, Ed Eastman, and Paul Masaschi, and Dick Power and Co-Captain Wayne Reagan starring in the backfield.

The praise for this successful season lies mainly on the shoulders of Mr. Markham and his assistants, Mr. Potter and Mr. Wickenden, whose expert coaching was of paramount importance not only to the team as a whole, but also to each individual boy. The success of next years team will lie mainly in the hands of the three returning lettermen, Charlie Getz, Tom Rabbitt, and Paul Masaschi, who, it is hoped, will set the precedent for another undefeated team.

Varsity Soccer

Second row: Mr. J. Gowing; P. Drooker; J. Xifaras; B. Lasbury; A. Blau; P. Zavorskas; W. Trenholm; D. Thomas.
Third row: C. Rhoten; L. Godwin; M. Feresten; D. Odermatt; F. Miley; R. Hines; W. Adamson; T. Goddard.

The 1953 season, sparked by the play of Alex Goyeneche, Jim Worthington, Andy Blau, and Pete Ripley, was one of brilliance. The team produced a better than fifty-fifty record with seven wins and only five loses.

The season opened with a 2-0 victory over the Browne and Nichols School. With only a week's practice under their belts the Middies looked very impressive. With a victorious opening game, Mr. Gowing felt that the team got off on its right foot.

Unfortunately this elation lasted only for a few days as a powerful Harvard Freshman team beat the Middies in two overtimes 5-1.

This defeat did not discourage the Middie soccer team because in the next three league games Tabor beat its opponents: Belmont Hill, Noble and Greenough, and Milton Academy to the tunes of 2-0, 10-0, and 4-1 respectively. With Capt. Alex Goyeneche scoring seven goals and Jim Wickenden scoring five the team was led to some very impressive victories.

In the heart breaker against Diman Vocational, Tabor lost its second game in overtime play 3-2. Following this loss Tabor traveled to St. Marks and trounced them to still be undefeated in league play.

The next weekend, Governor Dummer played the Middies and both teams were undefeated in the league going into the game. Governor Dummer having not lost a game all season outplayed Tabor to the tune of 3-0 and took the league title back to their school for the second consecutive year.

Tabor had reached its peak and the next three games against Portsmouth Priory, New Bedford High School, and Brooks Academy saw the Middies getting beaten.

With the close of the season the school can look back at the soccer team as having an excellent season. Although the record was not impressive at times during the season, the team looked excellent.

Fall Sailing

Second row: Mr. W. Maxwell; B. Hannon; A. Sibley; S. Park; C. Chapman; P. Simmons; M. Falkson; D. Capen; D. Ziskind; A. Barten; J. Phelps; Mr. A. Stork; Mr. W. McClusky.

Third row: R. Anderson; G. Hayes; P. Lipsitt; J. Warman; A. McLean; B. Mann; J. Kern; S. Stonemetz; M. Coken; A. Grant; D. Horrocks; N. Dennehy; J. Rolfe; M. Walter.

Fourth row: J. Burke; J. Kleven; C. Briggs; P. Hamilton; H. Heap; R. Campbell; D. MacIntyre; P. Pendergast; A. Pierce; J. Vallejo; L. Cousins; G. Wallace; P. Patzer; E. Clark.

Sailing at Tabor this fall had its share of hardships, the weather being the main difficulty with winds causing some damage to equipment.

Missing some of its top sailors from last year's exceptional team, the racing team began rather poorly. However, this did not discourage the boys as it was not long before Tabor had a racing team that was recognized for its outstanding quality over New England.

Tabor is exceedingly fortunate to have such a sport as sailing, and it will, no doubt, continue to be one of the major activities as long as it has so large a turnout as it was privileged to have this year.

J. V. Football

Second row: Mr. F. Dorman; D. Ferrari; J. Haynes; C. Lloyd; B. Kosman; S. Johnson; W. Thompson; S. Boorstein; W. Ramsbottom; Mr. J. Lucini.

Third row: S. Swope; J. Nolan; P. Ellis; W. Thayer; M. Heath; M. Wheeler; C. Wexler; J. Wilman; H. Wexler.

The J. V. football team is, in general, a preview of next year's varsity and because of this we can be assured of fine varsity teams in the years to come. The J. V. team is the training ground for the aspiring football players who wish to play under the respected coaching of Mr. Markham. Without the sub-teams like the J. V.'s or juniors, Mr. Markham would have to spend valuable time each fall grooming fresh, inexperienced players.

After playing on a J. V. football team, especially as talented as this year's team, many a boy may be assured a position on the varsity the next year.

The highlight of this year's season was a 50-0 win over St. Georges. All the members of the team were ready for this game and even the manager, Jim Wilman, got his chance to play.

This year saw something unusual about the J. V.'s in that they had three captains. These captains, Melbye, Soloff, and Olivera, gave their full support to the team and led it through its many trials and tribulations.

J. V. Soccer

Second row: Mr. G. Stokes; W. Williams; D. Rosen; G. Barrington; T. Karam; V. Munro; R. Vaughan; R. Padilla.

Third row: F. Mann; R. Larson; H. Peckham; D. Wortman; L. Berube.

Although the J. V. Coccer team was unfortunate in that they lost all but one game, they played a brand of ball which was extremely good. Never once was the J. V. eleven in a game that was one sided; four of the six games were lost by only one point.

The pre-season practice revealed that many of the aspirants were newcomers to the game of soccer. Through hard work by both the team and Mr. Stokes, the coach, a fine team was molded of which many members will see action on the varsity in the near future.

The highlight of the season was the final game with Portsmouth Priory, who had defeated the middies in the two previous games. Tabor was determined not to be defeated again. Afer an inspiring pre-game talk by Mr. Stokes, they emerged victorious with a score of 3-0. Thus, with this final and victorious game, the J. V.'s ended the season with a feeling of accomplishment.

Second row: Mr. R. Brownell; R. Connelly; E. Flagg; J. McGrath; L. Ballantyne; W. Jeffrey; W. Knott; J. Marglin; N. Shepard; Mr. T. Buffington.

Third row: J. Swope; J. Peckham; W. Darling; A. Blake; D. Ham; L. Blake; J. Leeds; G. Crawford; A. Pierce; R. Murphy.

Coached by Messrs. Brownell and Sweeney, the Junior Football team enjoyed a successful season, Co-captains Gary Reitzas and Jim Backus guided the team through disappointment and triumph of a season composed of two wins, one tie, and one loss.

It is sincerely hoped that Tabor will continue to support such an organization as the Junior football team, for it is on this team that much of the Varsity material has been trained. It also offers boys of ability a chance to play on an organized team. Each of these boys has received experience that will be invaluable to him throughout his life. They have learned how to live among people, both in hardship and in triumph, and particularly how to conduct themselves with sportsmanship that will be respected and honored by society.

Undefeated Varsity Basketball

Second row: P. Sibley; C. Broberg; W. Thompson; J. Xifaras; H. Berman; P. Brownell; T. Rabbitt; C. Rhoten, Mgr.; Mr. C. Markham.

Because of the persistent coaching of Mr. Charles Markham, as well as the all around play of the team, this year's group was probably the finest in Tabor's basketball history! Teamwork, shooting, passing, and all around play was blended by the players to give Tabor a very classy team. From the very first game until the story book finish of the last game, the entire school gave the team phenominal support, which proved an important factor in the Sailors most successful season. The won and lost record, blemished by none, was never harder fought for as in such games as Andover, Dean, and Tufts. The "never say die" spirit was with the team throughout the season and it proved worthwhile for such a rewar das this.

As far as individual play is concerned, many records were broken, tied, or crushed, but there was never any dissention or mal attitude on the part of any of the players. "Team play" was the key to the entire season. Jim O'Connor's phenominal shooting, as a result of his being one of the most finished schoolboy players, broke many of the school's previous records. Among these were two very outstanding: highest total of points in one game (36), and highest total of points for the entire sixteen game schedule (334). His "passing," 'rebounding," and "team play" gave pleasure to all who saw him in action.

Skip Karam "quarterbacked" the team from his guard position and more than once was very helpful with his exceptionally accurate shooting. He "stole" many a ball away and scored incredible "clutch' baskets to prove a vital cog in the team play.

Rick Power, the short fleet-footed player, who captured many of the school football marks, came to be just as vital with his driving "lay-ups" from both sides and is "floating, one handed jump shots." His speed played an important part in the team's most piercing attack, the "fast break."

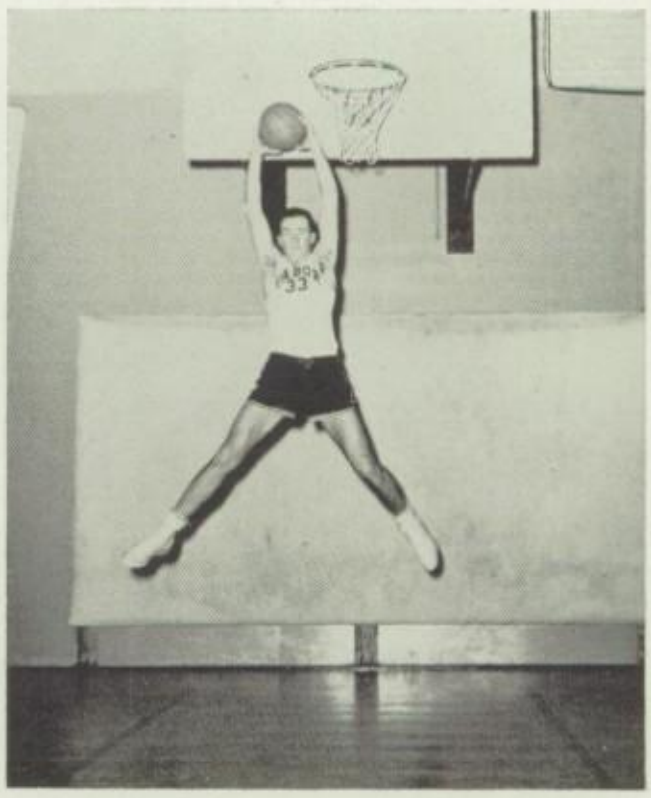
Captain Bob Roach wgas the "workhorse" for the team grabbing a record amount of rebounds for the year and continually outjumping opponents three and four inches taller than he. His "jump shot," "driving lay-up," and "hand play" justified his title of Captain.

Joe Urdzella and Paul Zavorskas with their "rebounding," "shooting," and "all around team play," which was the story of the team's success, filled in very aptly when they were needed and came through with many an important play.

Although the other players were used sparingly, they have something worthwhile to look forward to, because in many of the games, when Tabor was winning by a good margin, these players came into the game and not only played on even terms with their opponents, but they outplayed them continually, a sign that next year's team should also be a successful one.

Mr. Markham, a most deserving coach of this year's team, deserves a great deal of credit, since without his unceasingly persistant guidance and strategy, the undefeated team might have been "just another team."

Tabor is certainly proud of this spectacular team, and although hope is high, it is dubious that it will be fortunate to behold any such team on its campus for a long time to come.



Varsity Wrestling

Second row: Mr. H. Potter; T. Goddard; J. Williamson; W. Williams; J. Pozerycki; A. Cotter; L. Heap; Mr. A. Stork.

Third row: J. Ruttenberg, Mgr.; K. Dawson; B. Woodward; I. Chace; S. Leech; F. Wallace; G. Crawford; R. Regizzini, Mgr.

The wrestling team enjoyed a successful season winning six while losing only four. From the very beginning this team looked very promising to both the fans and its coaches. A strong rival, Milton Academy, proved to be too much for the Middies in the first match, but the second resulted in a victory over Perkins Institute. Needham and East Providence, the next matches for Tabor, like Milton, also proved to be too strong even though Captain Reagon and Ed Eastman did outstanding jobs, as they did throughout the season.

The final match was fought with St. Georges and showed the Middies being the victor. In this contest, Bill Alcorn, Pete Cotter, Bill Melbye, and Ed Eastman all won their battles by pins.

After the last match, the team participated in the New England Interscholastic Wrestling Tournament. In this tournament twenty-six schools participated and Tabor tied with Needham High School for fifth place honors.

Varsity Rifle Team

Riflery at Tabor has made records of which any team would be proud to boast, but this year saw its noteworthy scores blemished by four defeats.

The season started with easy wins over New Bedford High School, St. Paul's, and Middlesex. On February 3rd, the Middies bowed to New Bedford, losing by only two points to the same team who lost to Tabor by 49 points only two weeks before. Out of the next three meets there were two loses; one to Gloucester and the other to Exeter. The victory came against Belmont Hill with a 941-900 score.

On February 27th, Tabor went to Exeter to attend the New England Prep School Rifle Tournament, where they captured third place, Andover and Exeter placing first and second respectively. The final match was at Andover, and in that match Tabor emerged the victor by a score of 922-899.

Although this was not a normal season as to the won and lost percentage, the record now stands incredibly high at 89 victories out of a total of 96 meets.

Varsity Track Team

Second row: Mr. J. Gowing; C. Getz; L. Soloff; G. Robertshaw; S. Epstein; R. Buss; W. Dale; L. Godwin; Mr. McClusky; G. Porter, Mgr.

This year's team was only a preview of the good team that is to emerge from Coach Gowing's work.

The team, as a whole, was made up of underclassmen who did a wonderful job, but with the experience accumulated this year, will make a hard team to beat next year.

Even though Captain Win Trenholm did well throughout the season in the 1000 and the 600, the boardmen had a poor season in that they won only two dual meets, lost two, placed sixth at Andover, and fourth at the Bowdoin Interscholastics.

Some of next year's lettermen will be captains-elect Paul Donnelly and Charlie Getz, along with such men as Mackenzie, Reitzas, Hayes, and Epstein.

J. V. Basketball

Second row: Mr. Brownell; A. Norton; B. Lasbury; D. Thomas; S. Heath, (Mgr.); J. Warman, (Mgr.)

The Tabor J. V. basketball team deserves the credit of any ardent basketball fan. This team had everything that was needed by a successful team. It proved it through winning fourteen games while dropping just two. Both of the games dropped were to the same New Bedford team. It was a smooth working organization and displayed its smoothness to the highest degree against some very stiff competition. Two of these games worthy of noting were against the Dean Academy J.V'.s and the Governor Dummer J. V.'s. Both games were won by only one point.

Captained by Dewitt Dansard and Mike Feresten, the team gained some valuable experience for future years. "Dee" Dansard led the team in scoring while Steve Chase had the tbest shooting percentage.

Without much doubt, this year's team was one of the best that Tabor has seen. But far more important than the won and lost column, was the valuable training of good sportsmanship that is needed by all athletes.

J. V. Riflery

Second row: J. Hudgins; J. Crocker; J. Phelps; M. Whitman; B. Mann; C. Warner.

The chore of the J. V.'s this year, like any other year, was to prepare them for a future position on the varsity. This year, however, they did something different as they fired no matches of their own although Wayne Kearsley and Bill Hudgins had the opportunity of shooting with the varsity in a few matches.

Had this team had the chance of firing a match they would have been hard to beat as in practice they combined all the essentials or riflery in a very successful manner as a result of the remarkable coaching of Mr. Frank Dorman.

Junior Basketball

Second row: Mr. Buffington: W. Cunniff: A. Ziskind: J. Bowdle: E. Kiernan: A. Sibley, Mgr.: R. Anderson, Mgr.

Led by Brad Howe, Mark Warshauer, Jim Bowdle, Alan Barten, and Captain Spenser Gray, the junior basketball team played a better season than the record of three wins as against nine losses might show. The teams that these boys play are quite often out of their category.

Spence Gray, the high scorer for the team, was largely responsible for the noticeable spirit which the team had. Brad Howe was another boy who played an important role in the spirit and sportsmanship of the juniors.

The junior basketball team was originated four years ago as the result of the increase of underclassmen who, although somewhat better than many of the league players lacked sufficient height and ability to play on the junior varsity. Within these four years the team has advanced remarkably due to the coaching ability of first Mr. Brownell, who headed the team two years, and now Mr. Buffington who took over the job when Mr. Brownell was asked to coach the J. V.'s.

Many of these players who made a good showing this year will be welcomed on the junior varsity and possibly the varsity in the years to come.

League Basketball

Second row: P. Bachner, Mr. J. Luchini, C. Maginnis.

The leagues under the well-known guidance of Mr. Luchini have once more completed a successful season.

The main purpose of the leagues is to give those boys, who do not possess the talent required to make one of the major teams, a chance to play competitive basketball.

This year eight teams made up the leagues, four of which were in the National League and the other four in the American League. The season followes in a pattern similar to that of major league baseball. During the season each league has games among itself and the champion of the two leagues meet for a game to decide the "World Series" champions.

Varsity Baseball

Second row: R. Sellars, P. Masaschi, J. O'Connor, D. Dansard, P. Zavorskas, C. Maginnis, J. Wilman, Mr. J. Luchini.

This year's Varsity Baseball team was confronted with many problems. The spring rains curtailed the usual amount of practices that Mr. Markham had hoped to have.

The outfield, composed of John Decas, Jack Ryan, and Jim Mulqueeny, did an excellent job of fielding and batting. The infield was strong in its batting average but lacked the necessary fielding experience that was required of them.

Capt. Joe Schwartz did a supreme job on the mound, and, had the infielding been better, his record would have been much better than it was. Schwartz's best game was probably the Spring Day game with Moses Brown. Joe, in the previous game with Moses Brown, fought a tremendous pitcher's dual with Bob Considine, but was, unfortunately, narrowly beaten by one run. The Spring Day game produced a more favorable outcome, however, when the two great pitchers clashed once more. With excellent support from the other eight players, Joe decisively beat Moses Brown 14-0, allowing only three hits.

Varsity Lacrosse

Second row: Mr. H. Potter, D. Rosen, J. Backus, S. Epstein, W. Clark, H. Pelton, R. MacLeod, P. Simmons, D. Ferrari, Mr. F. Dorman.

Third row: R. York, M. Coken, J. Gada, W. Mackenzie, F. Mann, R. LaCroix, T. Goddard, G. Hawley, J. Bartlett, J. Kleven, F. Wallace.

The 1953 Lacrosse team made a very favorable showing although it played against teams that were far out of its class. With a record of three wins and five losses, the players began rather slowly due to a nucleus of new and inexperienced boys.

The first game, which was against the Harvard Freshmen, awarded Harvard the victory.

With inexperience still being the main factor, the stickmen dropped the next two, but each game showed them improving rapidly.

Spring Day brought the first victory for the Middies. This game exhibited a Tabor team which had truly advanced since the game with Harvard, a month previously.

The final game was perhaps the highlight of the season. Traveling to Governor Dummer, the Tabor stickmen were met by their most closely matched competitors. Tabor was victorious.

Varsity Tennis

With only two lettermen returning from last year's Varsity team, the Tabor Tennis squad finished a respectable season with four wins as against four losses.

Two of the games that they lost were to Moses Brown, and both of them resulted in 5-4 scores. The last one was a match that was enjoyed by a large part of the school body. Spring Day produced another exciting match that was greatly enjoyed by an audience of appreciable size. This contest resulted in a welcome victory for the Middies over Brookline High.

Tony Tully, the top man, sparked the team. Following him in order were Ralph Henderson, Don Smith, Toji Shimizu, Lew Johnson, and Albie Winters. One of the unusual things about this year's tennis team is that all but one of the members will be returning to see service in 1954.

Second row: L. Berube, J. Young, P. Curley, K. Dawson, R. Campbell, T. McGreevy, L. Soloff, H. Williams, D. Fox, D. Martin, R. Larson, W. Hawes, W. Alcorn, P. Sibley.

Third row: J. Leeds, B. Kosman, A. Grant, S. Park, J. Marglin, J. McCusker, R. Camp, C. Lloyd, R. Crevier, R. Hurd, C. Morbey, G. Hayes.

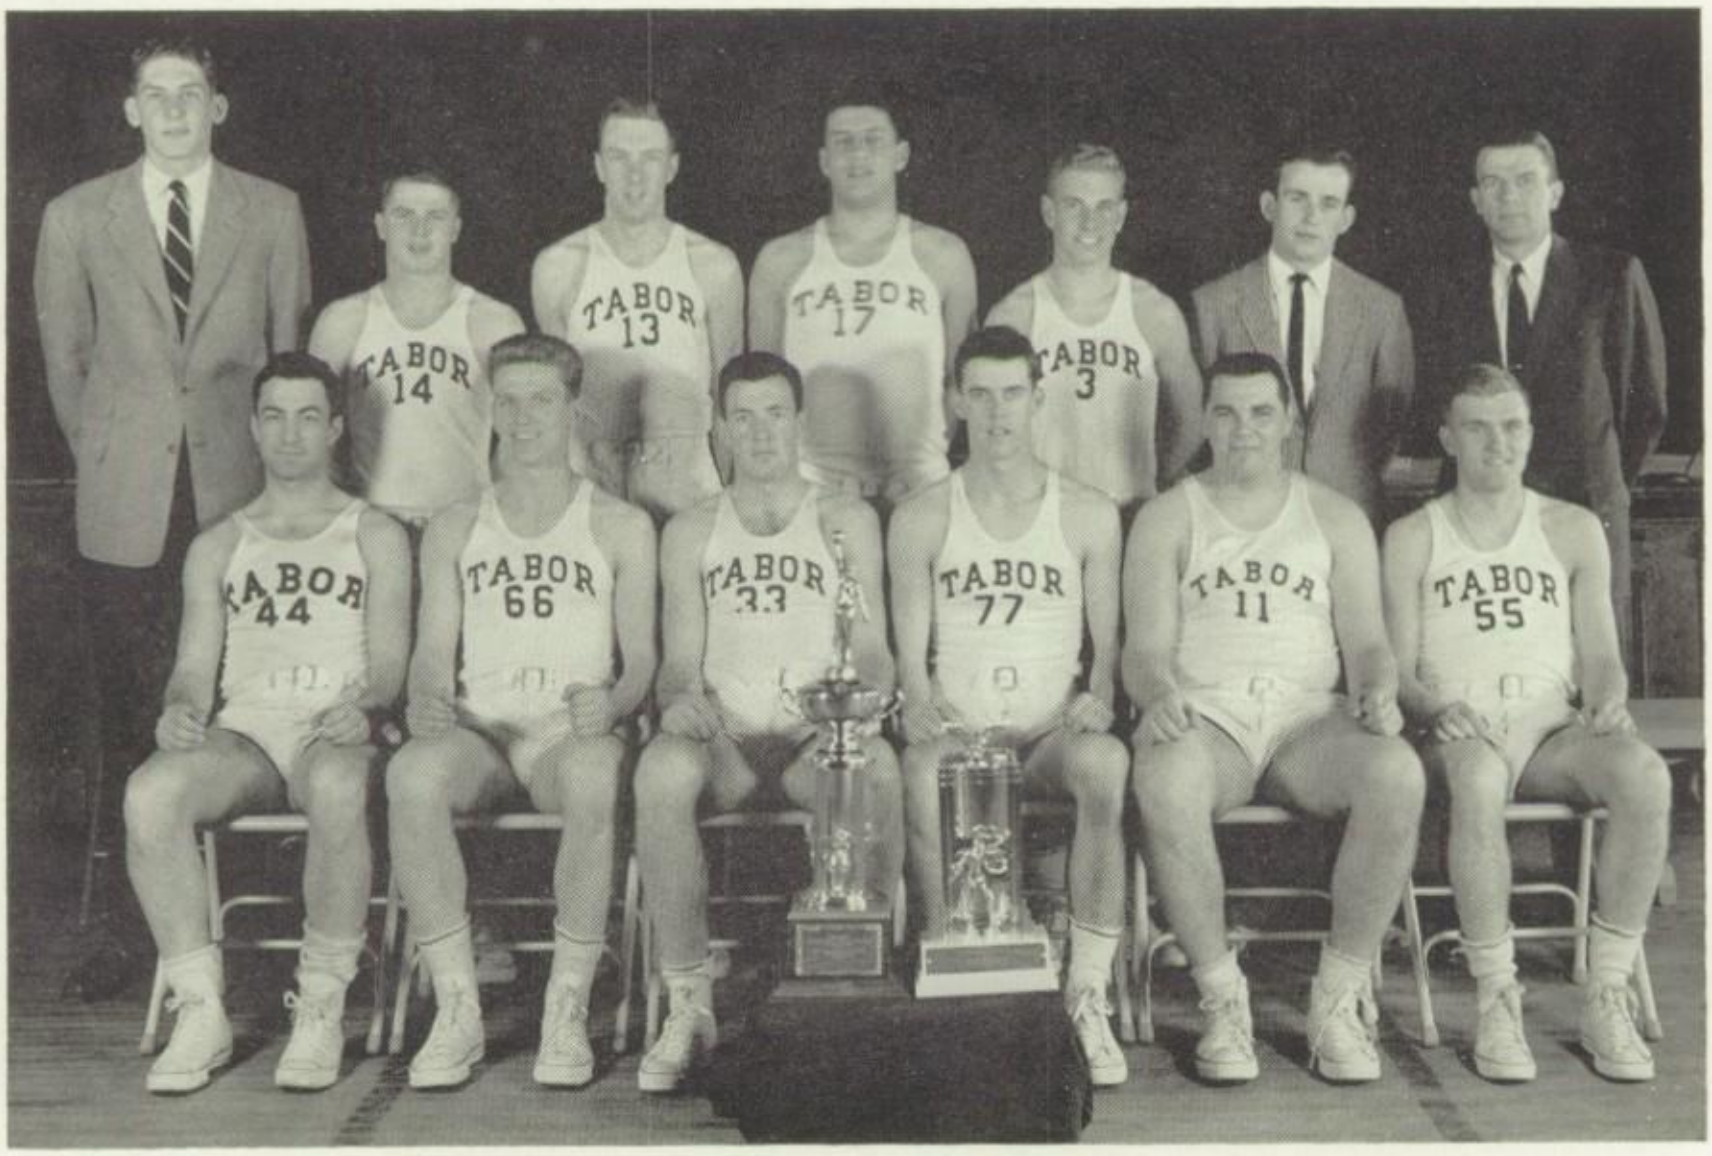
With only one returning letterman, the 1953 Crew made a creditable showing despite many obstacles. There were just two men who had rowed in the Henley Regatta, and the rest of the material came from the new boys and the lower boats.

The serious mindedness of Capt. Prindiville and the amount of spirit which was noticeable on both the first and second boats were important factors in the success of the season of "'53". Working with green men who had only the will to work, they hurdled the many obstacles which hamper the success of a good crew.

The season was a challenge from the beginning, when they were faced with the task of preparing for their first meet, just seven days after Spring Vacation ended.

The '54 crew has been blessed to get two of the outstanding men of the '53 crew, namely, Jim Worthington and Wayne Reagan. With these men are contained the hopes for a Henley Race in the summer of 1954.

E. S. Basketball Tournament



New England preparatory representative in the 32nd Annual Eastern States Basketball Tournament at Glens Falls, New York.

In all, Tabor played three games. The first game resulted in a win over Kiskimenetas (Kiski) School of Soltsbury, Pa. Tabor then scored a brilliant victory over tournament-favored Carteret School of West Orange, N. J. In the championship contest, Tabor was awarded runner-up honors when they succumbed to the nummerically superior and highly talented St. Francis Preparatory School of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Tabor was the recipient of further honors when they were awarded the "Sportsmanship Trophy" indicative among other factors of the team committing the least number of personal fouls. Dick Power received special mention for having committed but five personal fouls in the three full games. Also mentioned in the line of individual awards were Jim O'Conner and Tom Karam who received honorable mention for the "most voluable player."

J. V. Baseball

Second row: Mr. R. Brownell, R. Nourjion, S. Johnson, W. Barton, A. Blau, W. Thompson, R. Barton, S. Wong, W. Merrill.

Under the most able coaching of Mr. Brownell, the J. V.'s completed a season that is worthy of much praise. The overall record shows eight games won as opposed to only four lost.

This team showed an amount of experience that is not found too often in a J. V. group. More than half of the team had batting averages better than .300, which is not always expected of a schoolboy club.

The two top pitchers, Al Golub and Bob Berman, displayed skill that would have brought them positions on many a varsity team. Paul Massachi, the catcher, is another boy who deserves commendation. Paul sacrificed a second team position on the varsity in order to help Mr. Brownell who was in need of an experienced catcher.

The 1954 season promises to be very important for many of those who will be giving their welcomed services on the varsity team.

Junior Baseball

Second row: Mr. T. Buffington, E. Clark, D. Ziskind, L. Ballantyne, W. Jeffrey, V. Munro, R. Wooton, L. Munro, A. Sibley, B. Mann, J. Swope, Mr. R. Sweeney.

Third row: R. Anderson, D. Wong, T. Flagg, F. Miley, W. Thayer, J. Arne, H. Heap, W. Darling, J. Borrow.

The Junior Baseball team serves a twofold purpose; it gives the inexperienced player a chance to acquaint himself with the fundamentals of teamwork, and it provides him with the necessary experience that is required of a player on a more advanced team. Also, although the players do not fully realize it at the time, the training that they receive in sportsmanship is invaluable to success in this competitive world.

The majority of the players are under classmen, who, mainly because of their stature, have been put on this team so that they might develop more fully under able coaching and, perhaps, give their services to a more advanced team in the following year.

The 1953 team justified these qualifications in a way that made everyone proud of them. The nucleus of this well rounded club was composed of Jimmy Wickenden, Brad Howe, and Ralph Hines, all freshmen. The ability of these boys will be greatly appreciated by their future coaches as they advance among the ranks, and eventually fulfill their aspirations by playing on the varsity team.

Second row: J. Hudgins; R. Jones; R. Britton; J. Williamson; T. Bushman; A. Marvin.

Last spring and this fall the yawl "Tabor Boy", made its usual overnight cruises to such familiar places as Edgartown, Provincetown, and Newport, R. I.

These two seasons have produced an unusual amount of experience in the crew, with boys like Tom Mangan and John Woodman as the top men on the list for both seasons, Captain Carlson has been extremely fortunate.

A gift which would make the pulse of any Tabor Boy beat faster has been acquired by the school, and with it has begun a new era of sailing at Tabor. The school has been very fortunate in being presented with a schooner, the sister ship of the renowned "Yankee".

The members of Tabor Academy would like to thank Mr. Ralph C. Allen for this most wonderful ship which is at present sailing under the name of "Bestavaer".

It is fortunate that the boys on the Yawl Crew, who show a great enthusiasm for the water, have a chance to display their skill. Without such people as Mr. Allen, this "chance of a lifetime" would not have been possible.

Cheerleaders

Second row: B. Howe; R. Brien.

Cheering is a vital part of the extracurricular schedule of any private school, and its importance in the success of the numerous athletic events cannot be underestimated. An effective group of cheerleaders can channel the spirit and enthusiasm of the student body to the support of the athletics which is such a necessary part of their success.

Steve Swope, head cheerleader, and his group spent long hours learning the intricacies of cheerleading which proved to be so helpful to the successful athletic year. The cheerleaders were largely responsible for the organization of the pep-rallies before the football games, where the school could manifest its support of the team. The cheerleaders also held sway over the proceedings at the games, and made a hit by employing a goat as a team mascot.

The students and faculty of Tabor have only praise for these boys who have shaped the spirit of the school, and if some of the enterprising underclassmen can carry on this fine tradition, Tabor will benefit greatly.

"The Bestevaer"

One of the most eminent events of the year was the announcement by James W. Wickenden that the papers of the famous BESTEVAER, a Dutch pilot schooner, had been officially transferred to Tabor Academy. This magnanimous gift was made possible by Mr. Ralph C. Allen, president of the R. C. Allen Business Machines Corporation of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The purpose of this gift, as stated by Mr. Allen, is to enable the boys of Tabor to continue their cruising and sailing under ideal conditions of safety, with the possibility of learning the rudiments of seamanship, which, in modern day boats, is sometimes very difficult. The BESTEVAER will continue and enhance the extensive sailing and cruising program which has so colorfully characterized Tabor for the last fifty years. With the arrival of the BESTEVAER at Tabor, few schools of Tabor's size will be able to compare favorably as far as nautical equipment is concerned.

The BESTEVAER will replace the famous EDLU II or the TABOR BOY as it is now known, which was given to the academy in 1945 by Mr. Rudolph J. Schaefer of New York City.

The Bestevaer was built originally as a sailing schooner for the Pilotage in 1915 and 1916 at the "Rijkswerf" in Amsterdam, together with eleven sister ships, and was operated entirely on the sails off the Netherland Coast until 1926, under the name of PILOT SCHOONER NO. 2.

She was always regarded as a very good sea vessel. This seaworthiness was well attested this last January 1953, when Mr. Allen hired a crew of young Dutch sailors to bring her across the Atlantic. In 1926, the Pilotage changed to steam navigation, and all Pilot schooners were put out of service.

In May 1926, the ship was sold to the "Vereniging het Opleidingsschip voor de Handelsvaart" in Rotterdam, where the BESTEVAER has been in service as a sailing training ship for the education of young men for navigation on the sea. With the advent of World War II, she was captured by the Germans in 1943 and brought to the Baltic, where she served as a training vessel for the "Kreigsmarine".

In 1945 she was found by Dutch Recuperation authorities at Neustadt to be in Russian hands. After much difficulty she was given back to the original owners, and in December 1946, she arrived in Rotterdam.

Major alterations followed which will make the boat so valuable to Tabor. In 1950 the BESTEVAER was purchased by the N. V. Aanneming Mij. J. P. van Esteren, who completely rebuilt her for representative purposes. In short, the ship in regard to accommodation and outfitting, underwent a complete conversion, fitted by an admirer of navigation who bought the ship for her solid construction and supreme sailing capabilities, and adapted her for the purpose of being a representative ship of the Board for the Company.

Following the completion of her final alterations, the BESTEVAER shall be in service again with her new master, Captain John A. Carlson, who has been associated with Tabor Academy during cruising seasons for the past thirty-five years. Known the length of the Atlantic coast, and remembered by thousands who have sailed with him.

The amount of gratitude which Tabor Academy attributes to Mr. Allen is limitless. The pleasure and experiences to be derived from his gift should be forever abundant. Once again may we say "thanks" to Mr. Ralph C. Allen.

ACTIVITIES

Second row: R. Roche; W. Reagan.

The role played by the Senior Council in the evolution of each Senior Class is, perhaps, the most important in the school system. Operating strongly in the tradition of the school, the Council acts as a liason group between the students and the headmaster. Consisting of five well qualified seniors, four of whom are elected in the spring of their Junior year and the remaining member, who is elected in the fall of his Senior year, the Council represents the student body and particularly the Senior Class.

The Council of "54" will be remembered as one of Tabor's most aggressive and civic minded groups, and, in the course of the year, has unfailingly strived to benefit its school and class in every way possible.

Bearing a large responsibility, the Council is continually working on some feature of the school life, and this years members should be highly commended for their rewarding job.

Robat Club

Second row: R. Regazzini; A. Blau.

Thirty-five years ago a club was formed at Tabor and given the title, "Robat Club". The job of the Robat Club was to provide movies for the student body on Saturday nights.

The Robat Club, at present, consists of five seniors and is supervised by Mr. Vickers. They choose the movies, set up the screen, and do all the other essentials that are required for a film to be run successfully. The only task that they do not do is the operation of the 35 mm. projector which is the duty of a professional operator.

In addition to the Saturday night movies, they are in charge of the school's 16 mm. projector which has served many useful purposes and brought welcomed entertainment in the classrooms and assemblies.

The school is indeed thankful for this honorable and worthy organization, and hopes that it will continue to give an excellent variety of movies as it has in the past.

Fore 'n' Aft

Second row: C. Rhoten; D. Fox; M. Falkson.

The yearbook of any school has the task of recording in print the most important phases of school life along with the minor occurrences that help make the year a joyous, prosperous, and memorable one. The 1954 staff of Tabor's yearbook, the Fore 'n' Aft, has done an unusually excellent job of fulfilling this requirement.

The photography section did commendable work in its arduous assignment of acquiring pictures for the "Brief Glances" and the informal shots of the faculty.

The business editor has probably the most discouraging job of all; however, Phil Simmons, undaunted by the difficult chore, has made a record that will be hard to equal.

It is our desire that the Class of 1954 will be able to take through life a yearbook that they will be proud to show to friends, knowing that it represents Tabor at its finest.

The Log

Second row: B. Howe; G. Barrington; L. Johnson; P. Sibley; J. Wickenden; S. Swope; G. Hayes.
Third row: B. Adaire; M. Falkson; H. Williams; J. Wilman; T. Goddard; D. Smith.

Headed by Andrew J. Blau and Louis A. Stone, Jr., the 1954 Log set a commendable record. Although the paper got off to a slow start due to reasons beyond its immediate control, it picked up, forged ahead, and placed itself among the top ranks of previous school newspapers.

The contribution of any one individual on the staff cannot be expounded, for everyone from the editors, to the photographer, to the copyreaders fused themselves together into a hardworking cohesive group.

With the revival of interest in creative writing, the Log was able to publish a section, entitled the Literary Supplement, composed of writings done by some of the student body. This section was under the leadership of Christopher I. Morbey, the English exchange student.

Because the majority of the leaders of the Log are members of the class of 1954, next year's Log will consist of students who have written only a few articles. It is felt, however, that they will be able to continue in the same successful manner as did this year's staff.

The Print Shop

Second row: R. Sellars; W. Kearsley; J. Woodman; S. Heath.

Composed of about eight seriously minded members, the Print Shop has once more fulfilled its job admirably; adding another year in its fine service to the school. Play programs, personal stationary, the well known weekend slips, and the excuse slips for athletics are products of the print shop.

Many thanks should be given the school for providing the Print Shop with the equipment necessary to meet the requirements of the various demands for printing, and assuredly the ambitious shop members have used the equipment to good advantage.

The experience of these boys may vary, but what experience they may have has been gained largely on the school campus.

Credit must be given to John Knauth who has been a leader of the Print Shop during his four years at Tabor. He will undoubtedly be missed next year; however, Mike Coken, his successor, will surely follow in John's successful path.

Electronics Club

Second row: B. Mann; T. Mangan; A. McLean; S. Leech.

Organized in 1951, the Electronics Club has been steadily growing in its three years of existence. The club's main purpose is to interest boys in radio and electronics.

This year the Electronics Club has seen an increase of membership tending to favor the underclassmen. With their enthusiasm for radio, they will carry the club on to being one of the major activities of the school.

The Electronics Club is at present one of the few school activities that is run without faculty supervision or school support. Under the capable leadership of Charles Wexler and John Knauth, who were the pioneers of the club, the organization has progressed rapidly. The knowledge and equipment have been used thankfully by the Dramatic Club for backstage lighting and electrical odds and ends.

By helping the new members with the preliminaries of radio, the Electronics Club has been valuable not only in helping the school in many ways, but also teaching the members a valuable and educational hobby or profession.

The Octet

After an absence of a year, the Tabor Octet proved its successfulness during various Glee Club concerts.

The Octet became more diversified this year and included spirituals, college songs, and popular favorites, in addition to the customary barbershop melodies.

Under the guidance of Mr. Maxwell, the organization soon developed into a closely-knit group of boys. With the main stress on harmony, a good small singing group should be able to work together in any type of musical number.

The Octet is enjoyed by everyone at Tabor who is interested in the lighter variety of musical harmony.

Glee Club

Second row: D. Ziskind; R. Camp; S. Swope; T. Karam; R. Roche; G. Robertshaw; W. Alcorn; D. Brown; P. Sibley; M. Heath; P. Maher; F. Stout; R. Campbell; A. Grant; C. Morbey; P. Ellis; R. Regazzini; G. Kadish; C. Warner; J. Young.

Third row: S. Epstein; W. Dale; C. Chapman; R. Henderson; B. Adaire; J. Wilman; R. Crevier; P. Drooker; J. Haynes; J. McCusker; H. Peckham; H. Williams; C. Lloyd; V. Munro; W. Thompson; M. Wheeler; R. Jones; R. MacLeod; L. Ballantyne; M. Feresten; L. Munro.

Fourth row: B. Howe; P. Donnelly; L. Berube; J. Kern; W. Ramsbottom; J. Wickenden; C. Getz; J. Marglin; J. Rolfe; B. Kosman; P. Lipsitt; K. Dawson; G. Hayes; W. Williams.

Under the Headmaster's baton the Glee Club rounded into one of the strongest Glee Club's yet seen at Tabor.

With a concert schedule carrying them over the major portion of Southern New England, the Glee Club sang before audiences ranging from Garden Societies to high school and girl's schools to the annual Spring Day Concert. Included as ever in the Glee Club's schedule, were Dana Hall, Walnut Hill, Mary C. Wheeler.

Having a diversified program ranging from "Casey Jones" to "Battle Hymn of the Republic", the organization provided a wide variety of choral music to its audiences.

The Band

First row, left to right: J. Kleven; S. Holton; D. Ham; W. Thayer; R. Murphy; L. Ballantyne; M. Peck; G. Barrington; T. Mangan; D. Ziskind; W. Cunniff; J. Phelps; P. Lipsitt.

Second row: J. Crocker; L. Berube; R. Ellis; D. Rosen; H. Wexler; R. Jones; P. Simmons; W. Alcorn; F. Stout; W. Merrill; J. Burke; Mr. D. Doane.

Third row: M. Wheeler; P. Patzer; G. Kadish; J. Rolfe; A. Norton; C. Wexler; C. Briggs; R. Henderson; J. Gada; T. McGreevy; A. Grant; S. Johnson.

The band, under the able direction of Mr. Doane, is one of the more popular extra-curricular activities in school. Here the boys with musical ambitions are able to display their talents not only supplying music for military drills, football, basketball, and baseball games, but also in band concerts in Hoyt Hall.

The marching band has nearly fifty members, whereas the concert band is comprised of about thirty. Last year, for the first time, the concert series was introduced. The concerts were so successful that, during the winter term of this year, we had another series.

During the spring the band comes into its own; the marching band leads the battalion in th emany maneuvers on Spring Day, Naval Inspections, United Nations Day, and finally the commencement review.

Tabor is proud of its band and hopes that it will continue to grow and live up to its wonderful reputation.

The Orchestra

The orchestra at Tabor, familiarly known as the Swing Band, has, over the past year, provided enjoyment not only on the school campus but at many of Marion's various community activities. In the school the musicians provided the music at the Glee Club dances with the girls' schools, two of which were Dana Hall and Walnut Hill. At the intermission of the school plays they have done a wonderful and most appreciable job of providing us with entertainment. In the town of Marion they have been welcomed at such activities as minstrel shows and some of the town dances.

Mr. Doan has done an excellent job of preparing and leading the orchestra with its numerous pieces of popular music, and selecting the proper students with the correct amount of ability and experience.

At present, the swing band is composed of a full set of drums, trumpets, clarinets, saxophones, and a trombone represented by Mr. Doan.

We are fortunate that Tabor will be able to hear some of these musicians playing for the students and the townspeople again next year.

Debating Team

Every member of Tabor is truly proud of his debating team. Debating has come to be one of the most respected groups of its calibre in this vicinity. This year all the top four positions were occupied by newcomers; however, they kept alive the name of Tabor in the debating circuits.

Composed of Christopher I. Morbey, John McGrath, Bill Williams, Hoyt Peckham, and various substitutes, the team prepared convincing arguments on the current world and national affairs for their contests with opponents representing both girls' and boys' schools. Milton, Nobel and Greenough, Walnut Hill, House in the Pines, and Dana Hall were among the main adversaries.

Particlar regard should be paid to the coaching of Mr. Richard Wickenden, whose help in advising the boys in their manner of attacking the problems of a debate was invariably a key factor in the success of the team.

Tabor is fortunate in that three of the top debators will be returning to the campus next year to continue their excellent and successful course in the field of debating.

Dramatic Club

Second row: B. Howe; R. Henderson; J. Knauth; G. Barrington; F. Mann; W. Barrows.

The Tabor Dramatic Club showed the usual fine turnout of prospective actors as it has done in the past. Under the very respected directorship of Mrs. John Howard, with assistance from Mrs. Robert Sweeney and Mr. Joseph Smart, the club put out four fine plays.

There were two plays given in the winter and two in the spring. The winter plays were probably the more outstanding with two one act plays. The first, "Crime Conscious," was a drama with Harvey Williams taking the leading role. Paul Donnelly was the main character in the second play, a comedy called "The Still Alarm".

The students are proud of the histrionic ability of these actors and always look forward to the ensuing plays whether they be comedy or drama.

Photography Club

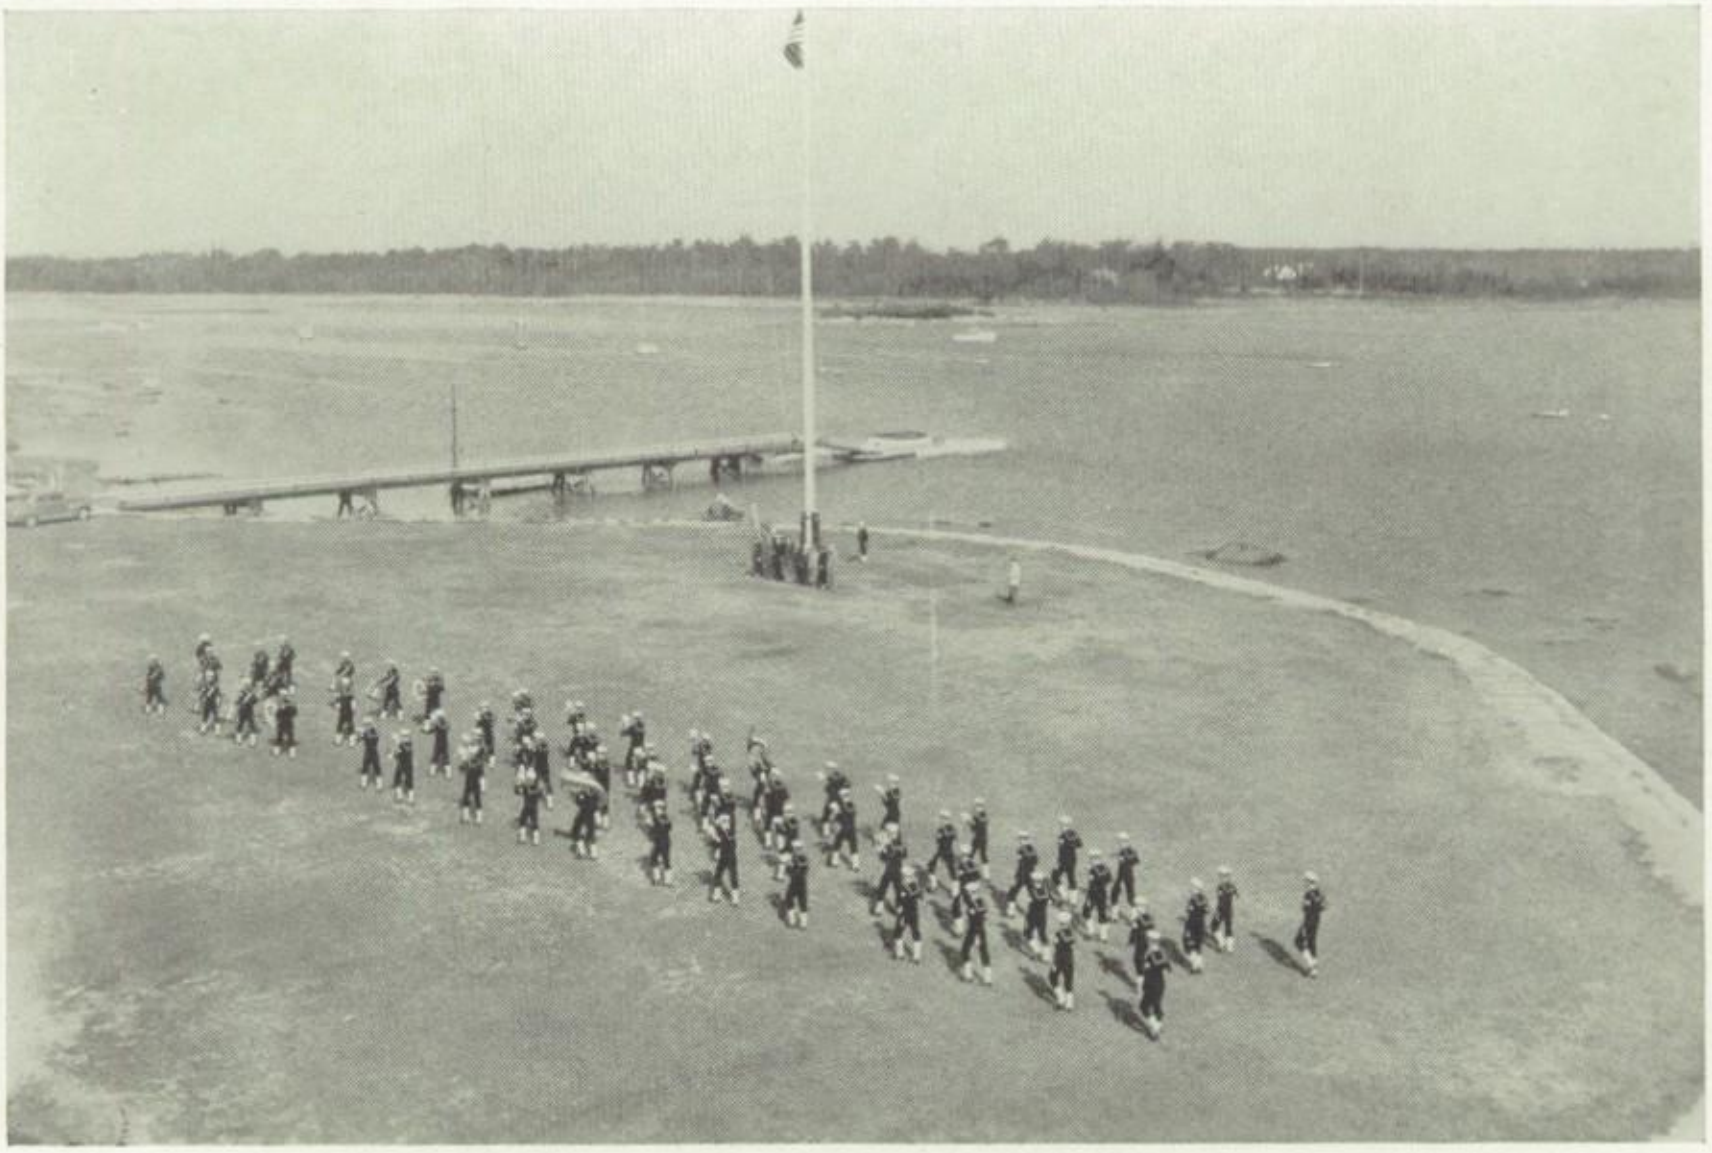
Second row: T. McGreevy; P. Stone; J. Knauth; J. Woodman

It cannot be denied that pictures provide a colorful addition to any story or article. For this reason The Photography Club has had an important role in the success of the Fore 'n' Aft and the Log. Under the supervision of Mr. Stokes, such boys as Michael Falkson, Jerry Kadish, and Terry McGreevy have supplied the necessary photographs to the editors of the yearbook and the school newspaper.

The members of the club not only take all the pictures, but also they have the opportunity of developing them and, in this way, learn all of the functions of photography that a true photo-bug must know. For some this will be their profession, and for others it will be just a hobby, but for all it will provide a pastime that they will be able to enjoy for the rest of their lives.

Drill



The importance of drill at Tabor is unfortunately underestimated. Quite a few of the generation coming into manhood will undoubtedly be required to serve in one of the armed services. With the knowledge of marching and the manual of arms gained from Tabor's drill program, the years spent in the service will be made somewhat easier. Also from this drilling the boy's discipline and respect of knowing how to operate as a group will be greatly sharpened.

This year the drill squads were very well trained in all the necessities demanded of a drill team. They had gained the experience of marching before a board of review on United Nation's Day in the fall that was necessary to do a laudable job on both Spring Day and Navy Day.

OUTDOOR ADVERTISING

today more effectively than ever communicates ideas to the public, ideas that sell products or services, ideas that stimulate sales, ideas that generate interest in those causes that mean a better community and a better country.
